

91 STUDENTS GET POSITIONS

C. H. Williams Places Many University Graduates As Teachers.

Many University students have been placed in good positions for next year as school superintendents, high school principals, high school teachers and teachers in colleges and normal schools. Through the office of Prof. C. H. Williams, chairman of the Committee on Recommendations, ninety-one of these students have recently been placed in attractive positions.

Of these, ten will be superintendents of schools, ten teachers in colleges and normal schools, sixty-seven high school teachers, and four grade school teachers. The salaries to be paid indicate that, in general, cities of 5,000 or more will keep the same salary schedule in effect last year. In the smaller places there is a noticeable tendency to reduce salaries.

Among the superintendents of schools recently appointed are Fred Bruner, Bonne Terre; E. Cleveland Holler, Kahoka; Thomas Denby, Quincy, Ia.; Harry R. Landis, Gower; and Geo. Husted, Portageville. W. R. Boucher and P. G. Buckles have been placed in the South-east (Texas) Normal College at San Marcos.

Miss Lena A. Barber and Miss Olga M. Tetley will teach in Missouri Christian College at Camden Point. E. H. Sanguinet will be principal of the Kennett High School and Leonard M. Wright will be principal of the Fulton High School.

Among the high school teachers placed are the following: Nola Anderson, St. Charles; Artemesia Goll, Catherine Bush, Alma L. Hocker and Ruskin Hawkins, Kennett; R. J. Clinton, Sedalia; Katherine Hillix, Brookfield; Harriett Blanton, Paris; Sarah E. Cheevers, West Plains; Leslie K. Grimes, Purdy; Mildred Hudson, Marceline; Lena May Lacy, King City; Flossie Belle McDonald, Hopkins; Florida Parsons and Maude Thompson, Cape Girardeau; Vesta Rhodes, Cameron; Fay Samuel, Lebanon; Gertrude Wray, Okmulgee, Okla.

In addition to appointments made through the Committee on Recommendations, twenty of the thirty teachers of vocational agriculture graduated this year have positions. The minimum salary for these teachers is $2,000, with $250 for traveling expenses, and the maximum salary is $2,400, with $250 for traveling expenses. The remainder of these teachers will soon be placed.

CONVENTION TO HEAR SALVI Noted Harpist to Play Before Fed- eration of Women's Clubs.

By United Press.
CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y., June 10.—Alber to Salvi, the world's greatest harpist, will play before the General Federation of Women's Clubs biennial convention at Chautauqua on International Evening, June 23.

Mrs. Horace Mann Tower, chairman of International Relations, will preside during the evening when seven foreign countries will be represented by as many foreign notables. Count Ilya Tolstoy will represent Russia.

In addition to the playing of Salvi, music during the biennial convention will surpass anything ever previously heard at General Federation conventions, according to Mrs. Mary Oberdorfer, national chairman of music.

With the exception of Salvi, only American artists, presenting American compositions, will be given a place on the program and in keeping with the Americanization idea, Mrs. Oberdorfer has arranged a series of afternoon musicals each day, called "Hearing America First" recitals. Artists appearing will be sent by the state federation which they represent.

Official organist for the convention is Jennie Weller of Rochester. Each morning and evening program will be preceded by fifteen minutes of community singing led by various state music chairmen under Mrs. Oberdorfer's direction.

"Music in Your Community" is the title of a conference which will be held on the afternoon of June 26.

TODAY'S MARKET

Cattle and hogs still continue to rise in price, with sheep quite steady, as compared with last week's quotations, according to market summaries received by Gentry Clark, manager of the Columbia Co-operative Shipping Association. On the St. Louis market steers of all kinds have sold fully 25c higher for the week, with the good steers still in best demand. The top of the market was $9.40, being paid for yearlings averaging 750 pounds, steers and heifers mixed.

Receipts of hogs were liberal and sold for 10 to 20c higher than a week ago, with the top at $10.80. The bulk of the hogs sold from $10 to $10.65.
While the sheep market has not advanced it is steady with that of last week, the top being around $14 to $14.25. The demand seems centered on the heavier spring lambs, lighter weights being severely docked.

Elks to Commemorate Flag Day With Appropriate Ceremonies

The first United States flag was made in Philadelphia, 145 years ago, by Betsy Ross. Since then a nation of more than one hundred million people has set aside June 14 to celebrate the creation of the flag, and that day has been officially designated "Flag Day." Other holidays are celebrated with the flag, but June 14 is devoted to reverence for the symbol itself.

June 14, 1916 President Wilson issued a proclamation establishing that day officially as the national Flag Day.

To make the Elks a distinctive American order the United States flag was adopted, at the establishment of the order fifty-eight years ago, as their emblem and placed on the altar of every lodge.

Every year each lodge gives its energies to the promotion of fitting Flag Day exercises. School children participate; four-minute speeches on the history of the flag, and ceremonies in the club rooms commemorate Flag Day.

The Columbia Lodge is making arrangements for Flag Day exercises this year. A speaker is to be secured, and ceremonies will be held in the local lodge room.

Motorcyclists Find Traveling Very Inexpensive.

"The cheapest way a fellow can travel is by motorcycle," said Jack Kramer and J. Hootstun who are traveling from San Francisco to Boston in a motorcycle with a side car. "We have made the trip from San Francisco to Columbia and our total expenses have been $40 each. They would not have been this high if we had not had to be towed thirty-five miles out of the desert," they said. These men carry a complete camping outfit for two men on the motorcycle.

The men have been three weeks on the road and expect to reach Boston in a week more.

Mr. Kramer is a newspaper man, working as country circulation man on a Hearst paper in Dorchester, Mass. Mr. Hootstun is engaged in business there.

M. J. Kelcourse, with his family and two other passengers, is driving from Santiago, Cal., to Boston, Mass. They have followed the Santa Fe Trail all the way.

The party left Santiago two weeks ago and expect to get to Boston in about a week.

BOYS! BOYS!

WIN $250.00

OR A CULVER RACER

Who Are the 5 Great Ball Players?

Boys, here's a new one. See the funny sentences in the picture. They are the names of Five Big League Ball Players with the letters of their names rearranged. Can you straighten out the letters to spell their names correctly? If you can, it will be easy for you to win a real Culver Racer Automobile or $250 in cash.

Start right in. The first name is—well, I'm sure you can guess. Yes—it's BANKHINS RUTH, the mighty "Babe" King of the home run hitters. Put that down on your list and it will be easy to get the rest. Just to help refresh your memory, I am naming some of the star players: Tyrus Cobb, Tris Speaker, Bankhins Ruth, George Sider, Carl Mayr, Ray Schalk, Roger Hornsby and Waite Hoyt.

135 Points Wins First Prize

If you can correctly re-arrange the five names of the baseball players I'll give you 100 points toward winning the $250 prize or the Culver Auto. You will gain 25 more points by proving that you have shown a copy of The Rural Weekly to three of your friends. This will give you 125 points in all. The final 10 points will be awarded by the judges of the puzzle to the boy who sends in the largest correct list of words made up from the letters in the names of the Home Run King—"Bankhins Ruth."

Send in your names of the five ball players and your list of words together. Send them in NOW.

Everybody Wins a Prize

Remember, boys, you don't have to spend one penny of your own money to win, and everybody who helps boost The Rural Weekly wins a Special Prize. You can win one. All you need to do is introduce The Rural Weekly to three of your friends; but first send your answer to the puzzle, and if it is correct, I'll give you 100 points. Then I'll show you how easy it is to gain the other 35 points necessary to win the $250 prize or the Culver Auto.

Write the names of the five ball players correctly on a piece of paper, and send it in right away with your list of words. July 9th is the last day to send your answer. HURRY!

Eighteenth Annual Convention
ASSOCIATED ADVERTISING CLUBS OF THE WORLD
Milwaukee, June 11 to 15, 1922

To attend this school, men will travel half way around the world, and thousands will come from every quarter of the United States and Canada; and the cost of the convention, in traveling expense and other outgo of the delegates, will be at least $300 a minute for every hour the convention is in session. And it will be worth it.

A great exhibit of foreign and domestic advertising, in addition to the general sessions and the departmental meetings of the convention, will afford a rich harvest of practical ideas and helpful plans for those who want to improve their advertising and selling methods to meet the demand of the times.

Again this year, businessmen and women can attend these sessions without holding membership in the Association. The central location of Milwaukee, its wonderful transportation facilities and the fact that June is Wisconsin's ideal month, insure a very large attendance.

For full information as to special railroad rates, hotel reservations, etc., please address Associated Advertising Clubs, 110 West 40th Street, New York, N. Y.
